Oak Class pupils now lead weekly prayer time in our class.

Well done to Isla and Louisa for leading the session this week!

Willow, you always show a love of learning that inspires others. As a class we talked about whether you would prefer to have gold or knowledge. You soon made a choice and decided that with knowledge you would always have gold. What a star!

Isaac, you are a delight to watch when you have accomplished something new; you look like you are about to burst with excitement. You have progressed in many ways in your work at school and this is due to your love of learning. Well done, you are a star!

This week's Heart of Gold award goes to Hudson in Rowan class. Hudson has worked hard this week and tried new things when they are challenging. He has been resilient and this is an inspiration to his friends.

This week's heart of gold goes to Lyla-Rose for showing a love of learning, and dedication to improve across all subjects.
